

Do your activities include a Global Dimension?

Contributed by Robert Geaves
Wednesday, 18 November 2009
Last Updated Tuesday, 26 January 2010

Read on...

We are conducting a baseline survey to try and determine to what extent the Global Dimension is already established into your outdoor activities and within the ethos of your organisation.

You may be surprised at how familiar you are with some of the questions, and how much of the Global Dimension is already established in your work

Please find the time to fill in the Global Outdoor Education questionnaire - and make a valued contribution to this new and exciting initiative.